

Big Country Energy Services, a pipeline and facility construction company based in western Canada, is broadening its geographic footprint into a range of locations throughout the United States. Big Country is one of Canada's "50 Best Managed Companies", a program sponsored by Deloitte, CIBC Commercial Banking, National Post and Queen's School of Business. Built on the foundations of safety, quality and teamwork, Big Country understands that people and commitment to community are the most important part of our business. If you desire a rewarding career you can be proud of – then look our way. We're currently accepting resumes for the following positions from anyone who has experience in our industry and shares our vision of a safe, responsible workplace:

Division Managers
Estimators
Administrative and Clerical
Superintendents
Foreman
Skilled Laborers
Pipefitters & Helpers
Pressure Welders & Helpers
Heavy Equipment Operators
Truck Drivers
Field Safety Advisors
Quality Control and Quality Assurance Advisors

Big Country is proud to lead the charge on creating a drug and alcohol free work environment; testing is required. If you are looking to be part of an innovative team who offers competitive wages, comprehensive benefits and an exciting work environment, please submit your resume, copies of oilfield tickets, and proof of a good driving history to:

Big Country Energy Services
Attention: Human Resources Manager
Suite 400, 1400 16th Street
16 Market Square
Denver, Colorado 80202
Fax: 1-403-501-5505 Email: hr@bcpl.ca